

Cat-Proofing Checklist

Before your new cat or kitten arrives, you'll need to cat-proof your home. Here are some helpful tips for safely securing each room of your house.

Living Room

- Tie up or cut window blind cords and loops
- Keep candles up high
- Cover electrical cords
- Store essential oils and potpourri out of reach
- Be aware of poisonous plants like lilies, sago palms, and cyclamen

Kitchen

- Close cupboards and pantry doors
- Keep lids on trash, recycling, and compost bins
- Keep stovetops covered

Bathroom

- Cover trash cans
- Put away medications and supplements
- Keep toilet lids down

Laundry Room, Garage, & Shed

- Keep the clothes dryer closed and always check inside before using
- Store cleaning products, rodent poisons, and other hazardous chemicals out of reach
- Put away rock salts and ice melters

Bedroom & Home Office

- Keep nightstands clear of medications, rubber bands, and other hazards
- Hide toxic items, like mothballs, in a drawer or container
- Turn off paper shredders or other dangerous equipment
